

Valley Reed

Valley Reed is a healer, dancer, activist and mother of two teenagers living in Dallas Texas with her life partner Hadi Jawad.

She currently serves on the Board of the Dallas Peace Center as Vice President in her local community and has previously worked as Assistant Director for the Center. She is a founding member of the Crawford Texas Peace House in Crawford, Texas since it began in 2003.

She also participates as part of an international group of activists with the World Dreams Peace Bridge since it began in 2001.

She was lead organizer in 2006 for the March to Redeem America, a 120 mile trek from Exxon Mobil headquarters in Irving Texas to The Western White House in Crawford Texas. In 2008, she was lead organizer as part of the Exxon Enough! Campaign which held Environmental Justice Hearings on the effects of pollution from ExxonMobile refineries on fenceline communities.

She is currently pursuing her B.A. in General Studies on Sociology and Woman Studies at Texas Womens University.